PEFINDO has assigned its “idA” rating with stable outlook to PT Bank Pembangunan Daerah Papua (Bank Papua). The rating mainly reflects Bank Papua’s captive market in Papua and West Papua provinces, very strong capitalization, and strong liquidity profile. The rating is constrained by its weak asset quality, moderate profitability, and tight competition in the productive loan segment.

The rating may be raised if Bank Papua significantly strengthens its business position and improves its asset quality and profitability profiles sustainably. However, the rating may be lowered if there is a considerable deterioration in its business position, or if any of its financial profiles weaken substantially.

Bank Papua is a regional development bank operating in Papua and West Papua provinces, focusing on both the corporate and consumer segments. As of September 30, 2022, it was 23.0% owned by the Papua provincial government, 16.1% by the West Papua provincial government, 58.6% by the city and district governments in Papua and West Papua, and 2.3% by Koperasi Serba Usaha Bank Papua Berdikari. Its business activities are supported by 2,262 employees and a network of 42 branches, 59 sub-branches, as well as 118 cash offices and payment points.

An obligor rated idA has a strong capacity to meet its long-term financial commitments relative to those of other Indonesian obligors. However, the obligor is somewhat more susceptible to the adverse effects of changes in circumstances and economic conditions than higher-rated obligors.
